

MR. RICKEY OGLESBY

Assistant Director of Bands, Instructor, Music

His appointment at Tuskegee University, Mr. Oglesby maintained a robust teaching schedule as a clinician, adjudicator, and percussion consultant across the Duval County School District and the State of Florida.

Mr. Oglesby earned the Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree in Music Education from Bethune-Cookman University and the Master of Music Education (M.M.E.) degree from the University of North Florida. His professional affiliations include the National Education Association (NEA), the National Association for Music Education (NAfME), the Florida Music Education Association (FMEA), and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Incorporated. He is happily married to his wife, KeShari; together they have one son, Kyle.