Objective 1	X

excuse will result in an unexcused absence. An unexcused absence means that any homework/term paper/design problems they missed can be turned in for 25% deduction in a week of the missed due date.

In the event of an excused absence, make up assignments (tests, quizzes, homework, term paper/design problems) must be done by the next class meeting following the date of the excused absence (unless scheduled with the instructor). Student is responsible for his/her own missed assignments. Student will receive a full credit for class participation for an excused absence.

It is critical that all homework, quizzes, and exams be completed on time.

Students need to submit their homework/design etc. by themselves. They should not give their homework/design etc. to another student to submit to the instructor. The instructor will not accept this type of submission.

Quizzes may or may not be announced.

No make-up exams or retests will be taken without a valid written excuse.

Final exam will be done in the exam book given by the instructor in pen.

Head gear and dark sun shades are not allowed in class, unless they are of religious significance.

The student is expected to attend regularly all classes in an attire that meets the College's Dress Code Policy of Business Casual. Students who are not attired appropriately will be asked to leave class and may return with appropriate dress. Students may return with the tardy noted; however, students who do not return will receive an absence. The instructor has the right to establish the rules and regulations for the classroom for it to be a conducive place for teaching and learning. The classroom is the place for the beginning of professional training.
